Use AU Libraries’ online catalog to locate books, maps, journals, videos, DVDs, CDs, maps, government documents, and more. Access it at www.lib.auburn.edu. Enter search term(s) in the FIND box.

Electronic Indexes & Databases

AU Libraries’ more than 230 electronic databases and collections include journals, magazines, and newspapers. Access at www.lib.auburn.edu and click on “Articles and Databases.” Access off-campus with your Auburn University username and password.

Reserve Items

AU Libraries supports both electronic and traditional reserves.

For information about reserves, go to www.lib.auburn.edu/reserves. Directions are available for placing items on reserves, as well as for viewing items already on reserve. You will also find a list of textbooks on reserve. For more information on e-reserves, call 334-844-1679. For paper format reserves, call 334-844-1701.

Individual study carrels at RBD may be reserved for up to one year, renewable annually. For more information, contact the Circulation Desk at 334-844-4094.

The Graduate Student/Faculty Quiet Study Area is located on RBD Library's third floor.

RBD Library’s fourth floor is the quiet study floor.

The Media and Digital Resource Lab (MDRL) offers equipment and software for creating and printing course-related posters, digital video/audio projects, CDs, and DVDs. It also offers scanning, creation and play back of music scores, graphic design and layout resources, and analog conversion. Located on the first floor of RBD Library, the MDRL may be reached at www.lib.auburn.edu/mdrl or 334-844-7398.

RBD Library has 35 group study rooms available for 4-hour checkout. Groups of two or more are required from 3 a.m. to 3 p.m. Groups of three or more are required from 3 p.m. to 3 a.m. Visit www.lib.auburn.edu/services.
Circulation Privileges

Graduate students may borrow up to 100 items.

Loan periods for graduate students are 90 days for regular checkouts, 1 day for bound journal checkouts, and 4 hours for wireless laptops, headphones, group study rooms, power and extension cords, dry erase markers, and laptop locks.

Graduate students may renew items online or in person up to three times prior to the due date.

Overdue fines and fees apply to journals, recalled items, reserve items, headphones, wireless computers, power cords, and special permission checkouts.

Contact the RBD Library Circulation Desk at 334-844-1701 or www.lib.auburn.edu/circulation.

Contact the RBD Library Information Desk at 334-844-1738.

Reference

Subject specialist librarians are here to assist with your research. Find a specialist at http://libguides.auburn.edu/subjectspecialists.

Contact a specialist by visiting the Reference Desk on the second floor of RBD Library.

Phone: 334-844-1737/800-446-0387
Email: ask@auburn.libanswers.com
Chat: www.auburn.libanswers.edu
Text: 334-458-0963

Instruction

Information literacy is one of Auburn University's student learning outcomes for General Education. Librarians will work with you to improve your own information literacy skills and tailor instruction sessions for your students.

For more information or to schedule a session, visit http://libguides.auburn.edu/libraryinstruction.

Interlibrary Loan & Document Delivery

AU Libraries offers a courier service that delivers library materials to your office. To request a delivery, go to www.lib.auburn.edu/jcourier.

Alabama Libraries Exchange Service (ALLIES) is a reciprocal loan service between select Alabama libraries. For a list of libraries and more information, visit www.lib.auburn.edu/allies.

AUBIExpress delivers AU Libraries' articles and book chapters directly to your desktop. Visit www.lib.auburn.edu/ill to find out more or to place a request.

InterLibrary Loan helps you access materials not available in AU Libraries. For information about the free service or to submit a request, visit www.lib.auburn.edu/ill or call 334-844-1728.

AU Libraries accepts requests to purchase books not already owned by the libraries. To request a purchase, visit www.lib.auburn.edu/purchas or call 334-844-1725.

Library Contact Information

RBD Reference: 334-844-1737
Toll Free: 1-800-446-0387
InterLibrary Loan: 334-844-1728
RBD Circulation: 334-844-1701

Check us out online at www.lib.auburn.edu.

Auburn University is an equal opportunity educational institution/employer. August 2014